

19 April 2017 11:00-12:30

On behalf of the European Judicial Training Network (EJTN), it is our pleasure to invite you to EJTN's forthcoming webinar 'The European Investigation Order: perspectives and challenges for practitioners' which will take place on Wednesday, 19 April at 11:00 CET.

EJTN welcomes you to its pilot webinar, which has been produced with the invaluable expertise of CEPOL and hosted on CEPOL's facilities. EJTN is grateful to CEPOL for its long-standing support and partnership.

Register for the event through this link or through CEPOL eNet. Post-event certificates will not be issued for this webinar.

TITLE

The European Investigation Order: perspectives and challenges for practitioners.

PRESENTER

Daniel Bernard, Magistrat Honoraire, Former Federal Magistrate, Belgium

OBJECTIVES

To provide a better understanding of the current landscape of EU cross- border gathering of evidence and the perspectives and challenges offered by the Directive on the European Investigation Order.

To advise on what will be the changes with the new Directive in order to raise awareness among practitioners on practical questions regarding rights and obligations of the issuing Member State and the executing Member State.

Practical questions that may arise when asking for some investigative measures in another Member State (examples and standard form).

TARGET GROUP

Judges and prosecutors, preferably those involved in judicial cooperation in criminal matters or cross-border investigations and prosecutions. Representatives of law enforcement are also welcome to join.

PROGRAMME

1. Welcome and Housekeeping rules by EJTN

2. Introduction by Sara Sipos by EJTN

3. Mutual Legal Assistance request versus the European Investigating Order by Daniel Bernard

- Which legal instruments are to be replaced?
- New approach based upon mutual recognition
- Types of proceedings
- Issuing
- Executing
- Ground of refusal
- Time limits
- Obligation to inform
- Remedies
- Specific provisions for certain investigative measure

4. Questions & Answers

5. Closure & Evaluation

Approximate duration: 90 minutes

Moderator: Sara Sipos, EJTN