

Notice on the results of the selection procedure of 1 expert specialized in the field of the Case Law of the European Court of Human Rights (criminal matters), as part of the "Training and capacity building for the judiciary ", project financed by the Norwegian Financial Mechanism 2014-2021

As part of the Project "Training and capacity building for the judiciary ", financed by the Norwegian Financial Mechanism 2014-2021, on April 10, 2020, it was initiated, in compliance with the advertising forms provided by art. 3 of the Procedure (published on the NIM website), the selection procedure of one expert specialized in the Jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights (criminal matters), the deadline for submitting applications being May 11.

Following the publication of the selection announcement, 7 applications were registered, as follows:

- Gabriella CAPPELLO (Italia);
- Massimiliano DE SIMONE (Italia);
- Mariaemanela GUERRA (Italia);
- Andrea MONTAGNI (Italia);
- Emanuele NICOSIA (Italia);
- Francesco PERRONE (Italia);
- Antonio TARRALO (Italia)

Within the first eliminatory stage, the selection committee assessed the admissibility of all submitted applications, by the following requirements:

- a) compliance with the deadline for the submission of applications;
- b) compliance with the required documentation, i.e.:
 - a letter of intent,
 - a curriculum vitae,
 - a seminar plan; the plan will include information on the purpose and objectives of the training activity on a topic chosen by the candidate, directions on all stages of the planning and organisation of the seminar, training methods, 3 topics of interest in the field of expertise, as well as any other elements that the expert considers relevant in this context. The design of the seminar plan will take into account the specificity of the target group: 25 participants — judges and prosecutors, as well as other professionals in the field, the objectives of the seminars, the duration of the training activity (2 training days/seminar, with a maximum of 8 hours)
- c) specific qualification requirements:

- minimum 6 years of experience as a judge or prosecutor (for judges and prosecutors), or minimum 6 years of experience as a specialist in the field of ECHR case law and related fields;
- other supporting documents where appropriate: certifications, references/letters of recommendation, any other documents that can support the candidate's claims towards meeting the qualification requirements.

Following the assessment of the admissibility of the application files, all candidates were qualified for the second stage of the selection procedure, consisting of an interview before the selection committee:

In the second stage, the selection committee interviewed the admissible candidates, looking at the following criteria:

- a) the relevant professional experience in the field of ECHR case law and related fields (this criterion will be assessed by considering, where appropriate, published work, participation in relevant training/exchange programmes etc.);
- b) training skills and the ability to plan, organise and evaluate a training session;
- c) communication and cooperation skills in working with professionals;
- d) availability and willingness to collaborate with the team of experts;
- e) intermediate knowledge of English.

The interviews were held on June 3rd and June 5th 2020, according to the timing communicated to the candidates, using means of distance communication.

After supporting the sample of the interview, the commission made the selection of the candidates, awarding scores from 1 to 10 for each of the criteria indicated above and decided to select Mr. Antonio TARRALO.

Considering the fact that all the other candidates have met the minimum score provided in the selection announcement, they will be placed on the reserve list, in the order of the scores obtained, as follows:

- Mariaemanela GUERRA;
- Andrea MONTAGNI;
- Gabriella CAPPELLO;
- Emanuele NICOSIA;
- Massimiliano DE SIMONE;
- Francesco PERRONE.

