LONG-TERM TRAINING PERIODS AT THE EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS (ECtHR)

Presentation

The long-term training periods will take place at the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg, France.

Participants will normally be integrated in one of the case-processing units of the Court's Registry and mainly deal with individual applications, in English or French, from their country of origin. Under the supervision of the head of Unit, they will more particularly:

- examine and deal with applications in accordance with the Court procedures and internal guidelines; applications dealt with include in particular prima facie inadmissible cases and cases which can be dealt with in a standard manner;
- draft decisions, minutes, reports, notes and other documents;
- maintain correspondence with applicants and, where appropriate, with Governments and third parties;
- advise applicants on the conditions of admissibility of applications to the Court and provide them with all relevant information;
- ensure legal analysis and assist experienced case-lawyers in the preparation of Chamber cases for examination by the Court and in the drafting of Chamber judgments and decisions; attend the Court's sessions;

- undertake studies and research relating to the Court’s case-law and domestic law as well as comparative and international law.

Length

12 months (1 September 2023 to 30 August 2024)

NB: The agreed duration for the training placement cannot be extended under the EJTN financial scheme

Requirements

- be a judge (either ordinary or administrative) or a prosecutor;
- have about 5 to 10 years’ work experience;
- have a thorough command of English or French (ability to draft decisions in one of these languages).

In addition, one candidate can be allocated to the Department of the European Social Charter and Secretariat of the European Committee of Social Rights.

The participant allocated to the Department of the European Social Charter and Secretariat of the European Committee of Social Rights will contribute to collective complaints and reporting work depending on competence and experience. Priority will be given to candidates with judicial experience in the fields of labour and employment law, social security and health, child and family protection or other aspects of social rights falling within the scope of the Charter and the purview of the European Committee of Social Rights.

Requirements for the European Committee of Social Rights:

- be a judge (either ordinary or administrative) or a prosecutor;
- have about 5 to 10 years’ work experience in a legal profession, preferably in an area related to social rights (or human rights more generally)
- have a thorough command of French or English (ability to draft decisions in one of these languages).

Candidates are requested to clearly indicate in their motivation if they wish to apply for the placement at the European Social Charter Secretariat.
